The Benefits and Risks of Structured Settlements and Their Alternatives in a Changing Economy

by Michael W. Kessler, Esq.

New York State Bar Association Continuing Legal Education publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. ABOUT THE AUTHOR

MICHAEL W. KESSLER

Michael Kessler is a partner in the firm of Rosenblum, Ronan, Kessler and Sarachan in Albany, New York, where he limits his practice to representing catastrophically injured plaintiffs. Mr. Kessler was selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America[®] and New York Superlawyers.[®]

Former Counsel to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, Mr. Kessler is perhaps best known for the $19.1 million verdict he won for the plaintiff in Auer v. State of New York. A sought-after speaker, he has given Grand Rounds for the Ob/Gyn Department at Albany Medical Center Hospital and lectured for the Albany Law School, the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA), New York State Trial Lawyers Association (NYSTLA) and the Capital District Trial Lawyers. He presented a paper on life expectancy of catastrophically injured children both at NYU Hospital and at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City and spoke on the life expectancy defense before the American Association for Justice (AAJ), North American Brain Injury Society (NABIS), Brain Injury Association (BIA), Brain Injury Society of New York State (BISNYS) and the Birth Trauma Litigation Group of AAJ. He wrote a chapter on this subject for the textbook Pediatric Life Care Planning and Case Management.

Mr. Kessler has also appeared as a guest commentator on personal injury law on Court TV, and his articles have been published in Trial Magazine and Trial Lawyers Quarterly. He is a recognized authority on Articles 50-A and 50-B of the CPLR and his 1990 monograph on this subject predicted the Court of Appeals decisions on the effect of inflation on plaintiff's recoveries. Mr. Kessler has lectured to both the New York State Office of Court Administration and the Association of Supreme Court Justices of New York State on the topics of structured settlements and post-recovery planning.

Mr. Kessler is admitted to practice in New York and Pennsylvania. He is a Diplomat of the National College of Advocacy, a member of AAJ, BIA, NABIS, and NYSTLA, and a Charter Member of the New York State Academy of Trial Lawyers. He served on the House of Delegates of NYBSA, was a Director of the Capital Region Affiliate of NYSTLA, and served on the Board of Directors of BIANYS. He is also a member of
