New York Bar Foundation Announces New Fellows Judicial District Chair

Chair of The Fellows of The New York Bar Foundation, Emily F. Franchina, announced that David Louis Cohen will serve as the Chair of the Fellows for the eleventh Judicial District.

Mr. Cohen succeeds Guy R. Vitacco, Sr. who had been chair of the district until his passing in 2014.

“Serving as a District Chair of the Fellows is notable and significant to the continued success of The New York Bar Foundation,” states Franchina. “It was an honor to have worked with Mr. Vitacco in this capacity.”

Each of the 13 Judicial Districts of the Fellows has a chair and often a co-chair of the district. “We welcome Mr. Cohen to the distinguished assembly of Chairs and look forward to his participation,” Franchina stated.

David Louis Cohen of Kew Gardens, is a graduate of Brooklyn Law School. He has served as a NYSBA House of Delegates member as well as on the NYSBA Executive Committee as Vice-President from the Eleventh Judicial District from 2008 – 2012. Mr. Cohen is active in the New York State Bar Association, Queens County Bar Association, Criminal Courts Bar Association of Queens, and is a founding member of the New York State Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys.

Mr. Cohen has been in private practice since 1975.
