The New York Bar Foundation recently presented a grant of $15,000 to UnLocal, Inc., New York, NY. The grant will be used to support their Immigrant Child Legal Services (ICLS) program.

“This grant will support UnLocal’s Immigrant Child Legal Services Program by funding the provision of direct representation for immigrant youth in New York City. We are thrilled and grateful for this third round of funding support for UnLocal’s critical legal services from the New York Bar Foundation; especially during this challenging time in history,” states executive director Michele Lampach.

“The New York Bar Foundation this year allocated nearly $700,000 in grants to 105 programs across New York, and we have nearly doubled the total dollar amount of grants over the past five years,” said Bar Foundation President John H. Gross. “Foundation leadership has worked hard to increase available funds so that we can continue to assist those in need of legal services across New York State and we are pleased that we are able to offer more assistance.”

New York Bar Foundation grants assist in:

- Increasing public understanding of the law
- Improving the justice system and the law
- Facilitating the delivery of legal services
- Enhancing professional competence and ethics
